MIGRANT Program

The Migrant Education Program serves eligible migrant students and their families by providing services which address specific needs to ensure that all migrant students achieve academic excellence.

Goals of the Migrant Education Program

The goal of the Texas Migrant Education Program (MEP) is to provide leadership to the field regarding programs and services that promote academic excellence and equity for the migrant students of Texas. To achieve this goal, the Texas MEP strives to create conditions which empower educators working with migrant children to collaborate in designing programs which build upon student strengths, eliminate barriers, provide continuity of education, and produce levels of performance for migrant students that meet or exceed those of the general student population. Parental involvement is viewed as an essential part of the educational process, and home-school-community partnerships provide the support necessary to improve student achievement.

Services

The Migrant Education Program is a supplemental program (Title I, Part C) that assists eligible students/parents in the following instructional and support services:

- Academic/career guidance
- Social services referral
- Summer school referral
- Credit recovery
- Building Bridges
- Student medical & dental services, referrals, or direct assistance
- Parental involvement

Eligibility Requirements

Students are eligible for the Migrant Education Program if they have made a “qualifying move.”

If you answer “yes” to any of the following questions, you may qualify for the MEP:

- Within the last three years, did the child move alone, with a parent/guardian/spouse, or to join a parent/guardian/spouse?
- Was the move from one school district to another and involve a change in residence?
- Was the move due to economic necessity?
- Was the employment a temporary or seasonal activity in agriculture or fishing?
- Did the employment play an important part of providing a living for the worker and family?
