CHMS faculty, students “Rev It Up For TAKS”

Church Hill Middle School held a pep rally to “Rev It Up For TAKS” with a little help from Gruene Harley Davidson.

The event featured principal Dani Baylor and assistant principal Chelsy Merrill riding onto the track on motorcycles, assistant principal Richard Rathburn puttering onto the track on a moped, a Twilight-based skit put on by teachers Courtney Krisch, Sky Skinner, and Cassie Perkins, and a performance by the CHMS dance team.

The pep rally was geared toward a strong student performance during TAKS testing, which begins on Tuesday for eighth and fifth grade students in Comal ISD.
