

Comal Independent School District

NEWS RELEASE

Contact: Jason Gordon
830-885-1081

Release Date: May 15, 2008

More than 950 graduates in Comal ISD this year

Comal Independent School District is graduating more than 950 seniors this year during “graduation week,” May 27 – 31.

Between Canyon and Smithson Valley high school seniors, more than $6.5 million in college and local scholarships are being awarded to this year’s graduates. Of that amount, about $225,000 comes from local organizations, companies, and associations.

Memorial High School, the district’s alternative high school, will start the pomp and circumstance on Tuesday, May 27, at 7 p.m., in the New Braunfels Civic Center. At that time, about 60 seniors from throughout Comal County will receive their diplomas.

Saturday, May 31 is the big day as both Canyon and Smithson Valley high schools conduct their graduation ceremonies in the Strahan Coliseum at Texas State University — San Marcos.

Canyon High’s valedictorian this year is Jake Keller, of New Braunfels. His parents are Kolin and Julie Keller. CHS’ salutatorian is Emma Luckemeyer, of New Braunfels. Her parents are David and Paula Luckemeyer.

Smithson Valley High’s valedictorian is Hannah Weissgarber, of San Antonio. Her parents are Eric and Angela Weissgarber. SVHS’ salutatorian is Julie Amthor, of Bulverde. Her parents are James and Gloria Amthor.

The Canyon High ceremony is at 9 a.m. and about 365 seniors will cross the stage. Smithson Valley High’s ceremony is at 2 p.m. and about 540 seniors will receive their sheepskin then.

-CISD-