First Comal ISD Parent/Community Summit

Sept. 20; many expert speakers scheduled

The first Comal ISD Parent/Community Summit will be held Saturday, Sept. 20, at Church Hill Middle School (1275 N Business 35, New Braunfels).

The free summit's theme is, "Communication: Bridging the Gap Between Home and School." It will last from 8:30 a.m.-3:15 p.m., and parents will hear expert speakers on a wide variety of topics.

"Parents are in for a treat," said Jamie Ezell, Comal ISD's parent liaison coordinator. "We really hope they take advantage of this great opportunity."

Riney Jordan, a nationally recognized motivational speaker and humorist, will open the summit. He is a former, teacher and principal in Texas.

Topics covered throughout the day will include: drugs, alcohol and your child; bullying; Internet safety; child nutrition; college preparation; dyslexia; TAKS and exit testing; the online Grade Speed program, and much more.

"All parents are invited to attend this special event," says Ezell. "In one day and in one place, they can learn so much from so many different experts."

Free transportation and free childcare are available for parents who register ahead of time. Breakfast and lunch also will be available for purchase.

For more information and to make reservations for this important day, contact Ezell at 830.221.2169 or jamie.ezell@comalisd.org.
