Two CLHS athletes sign to play at collegiate level

Canyon Lake High athletes Michelle Roberts and Ashley Pfaff signed national letters of intent on April 14 to continue their athletic careers at the collegiate level.

Pfaff will play basketball at Incarnate Word University in San Antonio.

She averaged 17.4 points per game for the Lady Hawks' playoff team.

Pfaff earned first-team All-District honors. She was also named All-Centex by the Austin American-Statesman and Comal County's player of the year by the New Braunfels Herald-Zeitung.

Roberts, who will attend Texas Lutheran University in Seguin, was named All-District setter for the CLHS volleyball team. She had 775 assists on the season to help lead the Lady Hawks to their first-ever playoff appearance.
