More than $100,000 in local, $2 million in outside scholarships awarded to CLHS seniors

The first Senior Awards Ceremony at Canyon Lake High was a big success.

Students were presented local scholarships totaling more than $100,000 and outside scholarships for more than $2 million at the event held in the CLHS auditorium on May 13.

CLHS will graduate its first full class of seniors on May 29 at Strahan Coliseum in San Marcos.

“We couldn’t be more proud of a group of seniors,” CLHS principal Cheryl Koury said. “This will always be a very special class to everyone at Canyon Lake High.”

Guadalupe Valley Telecommunications Cooperative handed out 10 local scholarships.
