CLHS band student to play in China this summer

Canyon Lake High sophomore Jason Wigginton has been moonlighting with his French horn this school year.

Not only has Wigginton excelled in the CLHS band but also in the Youth Orchestra of San Antonio.

His success in the Youth Orchestra of San Antonio will take Wigginton halfway around the world this summer.

The orchestra will travel to China June 18-28, where they will perform in Beijing, Shanghai, Hong Kong and Hangzhou.

“When I first found out I was going to China I was ecstatic,” Wigginton said. “I thought it was crazy that people in China wanted to hear us play. It’s definitely going to be exciting.”

The group will also visit many places including The Great Wall, Tian’anmen Square, the National Academy of Chinese Theater Arts, the Olympic National Stadium and the Olympic National Aquatics Center.

“Jason worked hard to get into the Youth Orchestra of San Antonio, and I think it’s fantastic he’s going to get to go on such a great adventure this summer,” said CLHS band director Mark Watley. “He’s a superb student, and I’m confident he will represent Canyon Lake High well.”
