

Comal Independent School District

NEWS RELEASE

Contact: Jason Gordon
830-885-1081

Release Date: Oct. 22, 2010

Clear Spring Elementary officially dedicated

Parents, students, teachers, and community members filled Clear Spring Elementary for the school's dedication ceremony on Oct. 21.

Comal ISD superintendent Dr. Marc Walker officially dedicated

CSES and students, led by music teacher SueAnn Studdard, entertained the crowd with songs that included "A New Beginning" and "We are the Stallions."

Pictured here during the Clear Spring Elementary ribbon cutting are students (l-r) Carla Sanchez, Haley Rubey, Chase Alvarado, Gabriel Talley, Alyssa Lebron, Yesenia Godinez, Nicole Skipper and Abriana Walch. Also joining in the festivities were (Top row, l-r) Thomas Bloxham, Comal ISD assistant superintendent for Support Services; Tavo Reyes, SHW Group; Ken Kjelland, Baird Williams Construction; Dr. Marc Walker, superintendent; David Spencer, school board trustee; Frank Baker, school board vice president; and Steve Foster, assistant principal. (Middle row) Janet Levine, Comal ISD executive director of elementary education; Betsy Nash, principal; Carlene Comer, Comal Education Foundation president; Carolyn Miller, school board trustee; and Carol Kendall Keller, school board president.

-CISD-

IN ADDITIONAL PHOTOS: Clear Spring Elementary student and Joseph Cicha was one of the members of Boy Scout Troop 382 that helped present the colors along with Cub Scout Pack 382 at the CSES dedication on Oct. 21.

Clear Spring Elementary students Taylor Kelly (left) and Evelyn Merritt sang "We are the Stallions" with their classmates at the CSES dedication. The school song was written by third-grader Madeline May.

Students Emily Miller (left) and Madelyn Brown enjoy cake and punch at the Clear Spring Elementary dedication.

