

Comal ISD Elementary School Acceleration Testing

Fall Dates Announced

Elementary School Credit by Exam Acceleration tests will be given for Comal ISD students during the week of September 7-10, 2010. Testing will be administered at the student's home campus.

The deadline for parents to request elementary school acceleration testing for the Fall testing window will be FRIDAY, August 20, 2010. Applications for acceleration testing are available at your child's home campus and www.comalisd.org.

Students must score a 90% on four subject areas tested in order to receive credit by exam for acceleration. Subject area tests administered are:

- Math, Science, English Language Arts and Social Studies

Any student scoring 90% on all four subject area tests will be accelerated one grade level.

Should you have questions, please contact your student's home campus or the district testing office at 830-221-2031. An application for acceleration testing is listed below.
