CHS Aristocats exchange gifts with GFES pen pals

Canyon High sophomore Mary-Cate Machalec reads from a book in the Boxcar Children series she gave her pen pal, Goodwin Frazier Elementary fourth grader Britney Aleman.

Members of the award-winning CHS Aristocats dance team have been writing letters back and forth this school year with third and fourth grade girls from GFES, encouraging writing, reading, and getting a good education.

The students met their pen pals for the first time during a holiday breakfast and gift exchange on Dec. 18 at GFES.
