

Comal Independent School District

NEWS RELEASE

Contact: Jason Gordon
830-885-1081

Release Date: Oct. 7, 2010

Garden Ridge Elementary officially dedicated

Dozens of parents, students, teachers, community members and city officials turned out for the Garden Ridge Elementary dedication on Oct. 6.

State representative Doug Miller read a proclamation from Gov. Rick Perry recognizing the school, and Comal ISD superintendent Dr. Marc Walker officially dedicated GRES.

The fourth grade choir, led by music teacher Paulette Davis, entertained the crowd with songs that included "Welcome to Our School" and "You've Got a Friend In Me."

Pictured here are Garden Ridge Elementary students (l-r) Matthew Martinez, Caroline Cohn, Megan Whitman, Nicole Martinez, Reese Crosland, Madi Butler, Erin Gillenwater and Logan Riley who were the big stars during the ribbon cutting at the GRES dedication. Also joining in the festivities were (l-r) Fernando Palos, assistant principal; John McCaw, Garden Ridge city councilman; Joni Coker, principal; Russ Sanders, Garden Ridge mayor pro-tem; Jim Young, Garden Ridge city councilman; David Spencer, school board trustee; Janet Levine, Comal ISD executive director of elementary education; Jay Feibelman, Garden Ridge mayor; Bobby Roberts, Garden Ridge city councilman; Dr. Marc

Walker, Comal ISD superintendent; Bill Swint, school board immediate past president; Donna Holmes, school board treasurer; Blair Williams, Baird Williams Construction; Carol Kendall Keller, school board president; Ken Kjelland, Baird Williams Construction; Walter Estay, SHW Group; Tom Oehler, SHW Group; and Tavo Reyes, SHW Group.

-CISD-

IN ADDITIONAL PHOTOS:

Comal ISD school board immediate past president Bill Swint thanked the large crowd at the Garden Ridge Elementary dedication for their continued support.

Garden Ridge Elementary fourth grade students (l-r) Madi Butler, Caroline Cohn and Arriyana Richardson sang "Welcome to Our School" with their classmates.

Garden Ridge Elementary student Trevor Hopkins presented the colors with his fellow Boy Scout Pack 828 members at the GRES dedication on Oct. 6.

