Students at MVMS create “Hawks Rise” mural

Jessica Foster, Courtney Grundei and Micelle Panek, students in teacher Ollie Morris’ art classes at Mountain Valley Middle, created a beautiful mural. It was then installed on a wall near the school’s library by MVMS teacher Randy Simpson and his family.

The entire mural reads “Hawks Rise,” which is an inspirational and character-based motto for students in the Canyon Lake High feeder pattern.

A portion of the mural, which will now be a permanent fixture at MVMS, is pictured here.
