Comal ISD seeks ‘Outstanding Graduate’ award nominations

Comal ISD is seeking CISD graduates from 2000 or earlier for the thirteenth annual Comal ISD Outstanding Graduate Award. Nominations are being accepted through March 12.

The Comal ISD Outstanding Graduate Award is designed to honor district high school graduates for excellence and notable achievement since graduating from Comal ISD schools.

Nominations for the Comal ISD Outstanding Graduate Award can be made by anyone who knows the candidate. To be eligible, nominees must have graduated from either Canyon or Smithson Valley high schools at least 10 years ago.

The nominee should be or have been actively involved in their community; achieved extraordinary career status; made outstanding contributions to a career field; made notable contributions to an area, state, etc.; and/or a combinations of these achievements.

The honorees will be recognized in May during the Comal Education Foundation’s academic recognition banquet. Last year’s recipients were Kimberley Faye McSpadden (SVHS ’96), Ron Rittimann (CHS ’85), and Helmuth “Slick” Schlichting (CHS ’64).

Nomination forms are available online at www.comalisd.org/Communications/ or at the district Support Services Center located at 1404 IH 35 North in New Braunfels. You may also call 830-221-2066/885-1791/609-6280 for a form as well. Completed forms may be faxed to 830-221-2001, mailed to the above address with attention to the Communications Department, or e-mailed to martha.miller@comalisd.org.
