SVHS FCCLA students excel at nationals

In July, two Smithson Valley High School students, along with their advisors/coaches, Ann Massey and Lori Niles, attended the FCCLA National Leadership Conference in Nashville, Tennessee. Jordan Wimberley, currently a senior at SVHS and a second-year member of Massey's "Ready, Set, Teach" class, competed in the STAR event category Teach and Train and received a gold medal. Michelle Reininger competed in the Interior Design STAR event competition and received a silver medal. Reininger, who was coached by Niles, is currently a freshman at Texas State University majoring in interior design. Pictured (l-r) are Niles, Reininger, Wimberley and Massey.
