Some CISD summer programs canceled June 9 due to weather

Due to inclement weather on June 9, some Comal ISD summer programs have been canceled. This is the most up-to-date information we have. Please continue to visit the website for updates.

Canyon High School: baseball and volleyball camps canceled June 9

Smithson Valley High School: baseball camp canceled June 9

Morningside Elementary School: Students already at summer school at MES are safe and are still at the campus. Students who ride the bus will be transported back home at the regular time. Parents are free to pick up their student if they are able to. If parents have not yet dropped their student off at MES, they are asked to keep their student at home if possible.

Bill Brown Elementary School: Summer school is still open and running.

School Age Child Care Summer Program (SACC): Students are no longer being accepted into the SACC at Goodwin Frazier Elementary on June 9. The students already there are still being cared for and are safe. All other SACC locations are open and running.

Church Hill Middle School: Communities in Schools summer camp is canceled for June 9.

Freiheit Elementary School: Registration is canceled for June 9 and is rescheduled for June 10 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Goodwin Frazier Elementary School: Registration is canceled for June 9. It has been rescheduled for Thursday, June 10 from 8 a.m.-12 p.m. and from 1-4 p.m.

Canyon Lake High School: Attendees for the Laying the Foundation training are asked to report to CLHS by 11 a.m. for the training if they are able to get there.
