CISD announces elementary, middle school acceleration fall testing dates

Elementary and middle school Credit by Exam Acceleration tests will be given for Comal ISD students during the week of Oct. 5-9. Testing will be administered at the student's home campus.

The deadline for parents to request elementary and middle school acceleration testing for the fall testing window is FRIDAY, SEPT. 11. Applications for acceleration testing are available at your child's home campus.

Students must score a 90% on four subject areas tested in order to receive credit by exam. Subject area tests administered are math, science, English/language arts and social studies. Any student scoring 90% on all four subject area tests will be accelerated one grade level.

Should you have questions, please contact your student's home campus or the district testing office at 830-221-2048.
