Homestretch approaches for Class of 2011

The final two weeks of the public school careers of some 1,110 students in Comal ISD are under way as the Class of 2011 readies for graduation day.

The combined three graduating classes of Smithson Valley High School, Canyon High School and Canyon Lake High School represent the largest number in Comal ISD history. And scholarship offerings are breaking records, too. Scholarships exceeding $11.5 million from local and external sources have been offered to graduating seniors.

Final exams will be Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, May 25-27, with early release on Thursday and Friday. Thursday's bell time is 1 p.m. and Friday's bell time is 11:30 a.m. for secondary students.

Graduation ceremonies for all three high schools will be on Saturday, May 28, at the Strahan Coliseum on the Texas State University campus. Canyon High School will be at 9 a.m., Smithson Valley High School will be at 1 p.m., and Canyon Lake High School will be at 5 p.m.
