Student registration dates announced

Just as summer gets under way, registration dates for campuses in Comal ISD for the 2011-12 school year have been announced. Parents are asked to provide two proofs of residency for registration, which takes place at the school. Students attend the school located in their attendance zone of residence. Attendance zones are approved by the school board. To view a map of the district's attendance zones, please go to: www.comalisd.org and click on the "Boundaries and Busses" link on the left. All registration schedules will be posted on the district website. Dates and times are subject to change. Late registration dates will be announced later in the summer. Please check the website before you head to the school to register.
